We thank our priests that serve God and Holy Cross by celebrating Mass each week.
Thank you for your gift of sacramental ministry!

Dear Holy Cross Family,

So glad the winter storms are over and warmer temperatures have returned. Hope everyone will be able to attend Mass this weekend. If you or someone you know are unable to attend Mass and would like to receive Holy Communion, please speak to me about arranging a home visit to receive communion.

The Laudato Si commission of our diocese is sponsoring an Appalachian Immersion Pilgrimage this June 9-12. Pilgrims will meet at and use The Dwelling Place Monastery in Martin, KY as home base. The cost is $350.00 and includes lodging, meals and transportation upon arrival. I plan on attending and look forward to meeting people of Appalachia who will tell of their lived experience in the mountains as they face the consequences of climate change. Partial scholarships are available.

Yours in Christ,
Sr. Amy (614-282-2103)

Fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time
 Vigil, January 27, 2024

Gospel Reflection:

The most important question Mark’s Gospel asks is, “Who is Jesus?” Jesus speaks with authority and people were stunned with the knowledge of the Scriptures Jesus displayed. Beyond this, his very presence changes situations. When he drives out the evil spirit, the crowd doesn’t understand when the shrieking demon calls him by name – “the Holy One of God.” They discuss the power over evil and go out to spread the news throughout all of Galilee, but they keep asking, “Who is he?” For them and for us, it’s more important to let the holy presence and authority of Jesus into the situations of our lives and of our world than to look for verbal answers and definitions of who Jesus is.

Reflection Question:

Name an action you can take this week to give God greater influence in your life.
