Announcements

- Election day is Tues. Nov. 7. Please remember that voting gives us the power to create positive change for our community and determine a better quality of life for our families. Your voice is important.
- There will be training this coming Thursday at 4pm for those who would like to take Communion to the sick or homebound. Following this training class will be a Simple Supper of soup and bread, and then Bible Study at 5:30. Please join us for all or part of this evening of learning and fellowship.
- Just a reminder, please don't forget to fulfill your pledge to the Catholic Annual Appeal. We earn extra points if all pledges are in by Advent, but they will accept them afterward if needed, no problem. (payments may be submitted to Sr. Amy).
- Looking ahead: Our parish Thanksgiving Day dinner will be a pot-luck on November 18th. Sign-up sheet in the back of church and get ready for some feasting!

Dear Holy Cross Family,

I am so deeply moved by this parish and the good work that we are doing, not just in relational aspects of getting to know and work with one another, but also in spirituality... it is quite apparent that discipleship and Sacred Liturgy is a primary focus of this parish. I am so blessed to have landed here with you. I look forward to the years ahead of mission and ministry to our local and global community.

Yours in Christ,

Sr. Amy (614-282-2103)

Gospel Reflection:

In today's Gospel, Jesus comes right out and accuses scribes and Pharisees, the religious leaders, of being false. Some Pharisees, who were supposed to be role models for the people, taught one thing but lived in another way. Jesus told the people to respect the Pharisees positions as successors of Moses and to take their teachings seriously. But the apostles were not to follow the Pharisees' example. Jesus makes it clear to his followers that they must honor and respect God instead of being overly concerned about their own importance and power. They were called to serve others, not be applauded by them.

Reflection Question:

Can you think of a time when you felt too proud to be with a person who might embarrass you, or you didn't want to do a job that you felt was beneath you??
