Announcements

- Our new December calendar will be out next week as we begin a new month and a new liturgical season, Advent. Please be aware that the Feast of the Immaculate Conception (a Day of Obligation) is on Friday, December 8th. We will have Mass at 5 pm. with Fr. Bob Damron.
- Please join us this Thursday for Church Work hour at 4 pm in the chapel. We need to get busy decorating the outside of our church for Downtown Christmas 2023 in Jackson. Come with your new ideas!
- There will be Bible Study this week on Thursday at 5:30 continuing our study on the Gospel of Mark. Please arrive early at 5 pm to join us for a Simple Supper of soup and bread.
- Please don't forget, this is the last week to fulfill your pledge to the Catholic Annual Appeal within the campaign period. If you need to continue giving on your pledge, please send the payment directly to the diocesan office or give to Sr. Amy in an envelope to be forwarded. Thank you for your selfless giving, Holy Cross has already surpassed our diocesan-set goal!
- Our parish has made an agreement with Venison Turner through the diocesan center to become the new maintenance/groundskeeper for Holy Cross Parish. Welcome Ven, we are grateful for your skilled service!

Dear Holy Cross Family,

Thank you one and all for all the hands and hearts that helped me move upstairs into the newly renovated Convent area. The results are so beautiful. Please stop in, have a look around, and have a snack before you leave tonight. I have been so very blessed by your welcome, your assistance, and your care since I arrived in July, Holy Cross is indeed a special parish!

Yours in Christ,

Sr. Amy (614-282-2103)

Thanksgiving 2023 – Blessings of food and presence!

Gospel Reflection:

Today's description of the Last judgement goes further than any other. This final judgement determines what counts in the end. It is not success or how perfectly a person has developed. In the end, the judgement is about love for the poorest, the no-accounts, the ones easy to miss. It is not about doing good or charitable things for a cause or out of a sense of duty. What counts is doing real practical good out of genuine love. Jesus tells us that when we do this, we are serving Jesus himself. (Faith Sharing for Small Communities by Baranowski)

Reflection Question:

As a Church, whom do we pass by?
